

Housing, Shelter, Rent/Utility Assistance

Get Help Finding Help

Dial 211 or visit www.211info.org

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon, Shared Housing call (503) 225-1054

E-mail: housing@emoregon.org

Shared Housing is a matching and referral service bringing together those who need affordable housing with people who have homes and want help with rent, household chores or personal care. This exchange is beneficial to both the person seeking housing and the one offering it.

HousingConnections.org

Connecting people with a place to live, housing services and housing information. Affordable, accessible and special needs housing.

Human Solutions - (503) 548-0200 or (503) 405-7875

12350 SE Powell Boulevard (as of 1/2012)

www.humansolutions.org

Serves homeless and low income. Housing available for homeless and low income families in East County Also offers case management, short-term intervention and information and referral; rent/energy assistance.

Janus Youth Programs - (503) 233-6090

Harry's Mother - (503) 233-8111, (800) 979-4357, 24 Hour crisis line

738 NE Davis

Portland, OR 97232

<http://www.janusyouth.org>

Emergency shelter and respite for adolescents ages 9-17. Offers crisis, individual and family counseling, case management, family mediation, information and referrals. Services free of charge.

Street Light Shelter - (503) 224-5988 Provides short-term housing for 30 homeless youth, ages 13 to 20.

Porch Light Shelter Provides Emergency housing for 30 youth ages 13 to 20. First come first served basis.

My Father's House - (503) 492-3046

www.familyshelter.org

Year round family shelter for 26 families. Currently building new site to house 120 families. Call for availability.

My Sister's House - (503) 665-1026

www.mysistershouse.net

Faith based organization that provides short term housing for women in need. Clothing available for women and children. Call for availability.

New Avenues for Youth – 1-800-995-7936

314 SW 9th Ave.

Portland, Oregon 97205

www.newavenues.org

Variety of services for runaway or homeless youth ages 14 to 24, (food, daytime activities, case management, no emergency shelter but will help with locating a place to stay.

*This is the best-known information available at the time of printing. No reference checks or criminal background checks on listed individuals or agencies have been carried out by the Gresham-Barlow School District. Parents are advised to make their own investigation of the listed individuals and agencies to determine the appropriateness of that person or agency in assisting the family. There is no representation as to the quality or expertise of the listed individuals or agencies. Updated 1-6-2012

Runaway Crisis Line - (800) RUN-AWAY (800-786-2929)

www.1800runaway.org

Runaway crisis services.

Salvation Army - (503) 661-8972

473 SE 194th

Portland, OR (For residents east of 122nd).

Emergency food baskets, limited clothing vouchers and energy assistance during winter months.

St. Vincent de Paul - (503) 235-8431

Emergency food, clothing, rent and utility assistance.

Transitional Youth - (503) 350-7268

Junction House

www.transitionalyouth.org

Assisting with housing, meals and offering a scholarship program.