“The Barlow girls soccer camp will be focused on fitness conditioning and skill work relevant to the game of soccer. Training sessions will include speed and agility training, endurance training with emphasis on intervals emulating game play and improving overall foot skills important to game performance.

Training sessions will include various drills and small-sided games to encourage development of individual ball skills as well as team play and understanding of the game.

It is highly recommended that every girl planning on trying out for the program attend camp. In order to have a successful season and build a quality program, we need every player in peak physical condition before the beginning of training camp.”
